

1 Rewrite the incorrect sentences with the words in brackets in the correct position.

- By time you get home I'll have made dinner. (the)
.....
By the time you get home I'll have made dinner.
- My father will been at the same company for fifty years this month. (have)
.....
.....
- I have watched the film by the time you get back. (will)
.....
.....
- This time week we'll be lying on a beach in Spain. (next)
.....
.....
- We'll leaving as soon as everyone is ready. (be)
.....
.....
- I'll be Mario later on, so I'll ask him if he wants to come on Saturday. (seeing)
.....
.....

2 Choose the correct words.

- This time next week we'll have finally finish / finished this project.
- Will you be / are going to Maggie's party at the weekend?
- He will have get / got there by now. Give him a call.
- By the time we meet up next I'll have running / run the London marathon.
- We will be / have left school by then. Can you believe it?
- We'll be travelling / travelled around South America at that time.

3 Match the parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|---------------------|-------|
| 1 He's due to | d |
| 2 We're thinking of | |
| 3 She's about to | |
| 4 You're bound to | |
| 5 We're supposed to | |
| 6 They're off to | |
-
- go on stage. She can't talk now.
 - upset people if you're rude to them.
 - stay quiet.
 - leave at the end of the year. We'll miss him.
 - university in October. They can't wait.
 - moving to France. We'd like to live in the south.

4 Choose the correct answer: a, b or c.

- We're leave. I'll call you when we get there.
a about to b off to c thinking of
- Come on, we're win this one. We've got a much stronger team. So stop worrying.
a bound to b thinking of c about to
- I think they're the beach this weekend.
a due to b bound to c off to
- She's seriously dropping out of university.
a thinking of b bound to c about to
- It's rain tomorrow. I'm not sure if we'll be able to have the cricket match.
a off to b due to c thinking of
- Well, I'd love to come, but I'm be studying for my exam tonight.
a about to b thinking of c supposed to